

April 25, 2025

As we head into the weekend, we are offering two brief updates from the past two days.

News and Updates - OWFR OHT

1. Questions and Answers have been updated. Additions are in RED
2. We know that you are all receiving resources from many sources – the OHT team has curated a “short list” for you to consider and mapped this to the 6 primary care team principles in the proposal template. Integrating resources and data into your proposal (with thanks to our friends at the Ottawa OHT for this idea! It takes a village).

Reminders & Key Dates (no changes)
